Student & Class Information

Hello PGD family... We only have 2 Saturday practices left until the recital (including today). We will have 4 additional practices this month All of these practices are MANDATORY the dates are listed below. PLEASE make sure your child is at every practice and on time. If your child is not performing in the recital, this does not apply.

If you don't have a video or the song selection that your child will be performing let us know. Practice during the week is just as important as practicing during regular scheduled classes. T-shirt money and well-wishers are due now. Tshirts are mandatory if your child is performing, well-wishers are optional. If you have already submitted your well wisher, please email your quote along with the picture you would like to use, I could not understand some of the writing phillysgotdance@gmail.com. Final reminder, your account must be in good standing with PGD to participate in the dance recital. About 25% of parents paid Mays tuition please make your account current. Recital tickets are available to purchase as of today, $10 and $15 at the door. Please let your family and friends know that the recital is starting at 3:00pm exactly, no exceptions. If you are not there by 3pm there is a strong possibility that you will miss your child's dance routine. There is a check off list of items to donate for the concession table, please stop by and see what you can help with.

Parents: The extra practice days are long and an extremely stressful process, please do not enter any of the classrooms and we ask for your patience with these extra practice days. Also, P1, P2 and P3 should have pink ballet shoes by this time. Black will not be acceptable for ballet performance and is not an option. P2 and P3 should have black jazz shoes by now, if you can't find the black jazz shoes, black ballet shoes will be acceptable. I have a link where you can purchase inexpensive ballet shoes if needed. Pictures are back, if you purchased a package, stop by the front desk to pick them up. Next Saturday June 8th we will have a pop-up shop. We will be selling platter, all platters are $10. Chicken or Fish, Baked mac, cabbage, and yams. 1 meat 2 sides. Text chicken or fish if you would like a platter 267-304-0860.
